

1. JOB TITLE: Technologist - Radiography

Shinyanga, Tanzania, United Republic of

Apply Before 10/02/2023, 21:00

JOB DESCRIPTION

JOB ADVERT – RADIOGRAPHER (01 VACANCY)

Position Description

The Bulyanhulu Team is seeking to recruit a Radiographer to join and grow their team. You will be expected to align to the Barrick DNA and to operate within our mining assets with our best people teams. You will contribute on a practical note to ensure activities in the Social and Environment Department are effectively planned and undertaken in a safe and cost-effective manner to achieve targets in accordance with BGML Mining Safety Standards, Policies and Procedures and ensure daily targets are met.

Duration: Permanent

Responsibilities:

- Responsibilities to be carried out in accordance with relevant Tanzanian (The Occupational Health and Safety Act, 2003 Part VI Section 60) & International laws, regulations and company Health, Safety, Environment and Community Relations policies, standards & procedures.
- Maintain registration to practice in Tanzania as Radiographer
- Report environmental hazards when observed.

- Provide x-ray support to emergency medical services for client personnel located in BGML as required and directed by Clinic Doctor
- Act as a key member to the emergency medical services group on in BGML and take part as directed by the senior BGML medical staff.
- Provide x-ray support for provision of general medical services to clients of BGML clinic.
- Perform x-ray operations, as per equipment provided, for both general, medical check-up and occupational health programs as directed by doctor.
- Provide supportive x-ray services on an emergency basis, as directed by the Doctor.
- Prepare reports of x-ray actions on a regular basis including types and number of x-rays performed usage of chemicals/films, extra-ordinary x-rays taken or sent to other sites when required and maintenance/repair of site x-ray equipment requirements.
- Provide a safe working environment and maintain internationally recognized standards of X-Ray safety for all staff and clients.
- Record daily, weekly & monthly statistics.
- Ensure compliance with relevant Tanzanian OHS regulations and corporate codes of practice.
- Participate in ongoing competency skills training.
- Maintain professional development in relation to current international standard medical record skills and knowledge.
- Be available to work any shift according to Roster requirements.
- Maintains confidentiality of all information related to BGML business and clients.
- Performs other similar duties as assigned by the manager.

Qualification requirements:

- Bachelor's Degree in diagnostic radiography
- Fully qualified to practice as a Radiographer in country of appointment through the government approval process.
- Graduated from a recognized medical institution providing Academy-level or better X-ray training.

Skills / knowledge requirements:

- Excellent communication skills both written and verbal
- Excellent Work Ethics
- Able to work under low supervision
- Able to demonstrate a professional manner at all times
- Able to demonstrate a positive attitude
- Able to maintain the confidentiality of all clinic clients
- Able to support and contribute to maintaining a safe environment, promoting accident prevention, and reporting potential hazards

Experience and competencies needed:

- Minimum 3+ years' experience in a medical institution as a Radiographer.
- Prior experience of working in medical institutions will be added advantage.

APPLY HERE

