2014 SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FOR HAIRSTYLING CERTIFICATION & BUSINESS EDUCATION

Nafasi Opportunity Society is a Canadian organization supporting young women in Tanzania who wish to gain trade and vocational training and require financial assistance. In 2014 the vocational career chosen is hairstyling and business skills. There are 25 scholarships available for 2014-15, consisting of program tuition, a stipend to cover public transit and a lunch for each day of school instruction.

Education will consist of basic business courses offered through partnership with The Open University of Tanzania starting November 2014 in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania, continuing with 3 to 4 months of a hairstyling program at a hairstyling school in Dar es Salaam, with course completion in May 2015.

At the end of this schooling learners will become certified hair stylists with skills to work for an established salon or to consider starting their own hairstyling business. Instruction from Canadian instructors will be included for a portion of the hairstyling program.

Information on Nafasi Opportunity Society can be found at www.nafasi-opportunity.ca

Applicants must be Tanzanian, female and aged 18 – 28 years old

Scholarships awarded based on

- Financial need
- An interest in the hairdressing profession
- Basic English language skills
- The ability to attend class from November 2014 to May 2015

NOTE: Applicants must be available for interviews with the Scholarship Selection Committee at the Open University of Tanzania in October/November 2014.
