Australian Government

AusAID

REQUEST FOR TENDER - CAPABILITY STATEMENT

AusAID, the Australian Agency for International Development, manages the Australian Government's official overseas aid program. AusAID assists developing countries to reduce poverty and achieve sustainable development, in line with Australia's national interest. AusAID is seeking a Managing Contractor to undertake the following development program in Africa.

AUSTRALIAN SCHOLARSHIPS FOR AFRICA PROGRAM

The Australian Scholarships for Africa program is a key initiative supporting the Australian Government's increased engagement across Africa. By 2012-13, Australia will be providing 1,000 long- and short-term awards per year across the continent.

We are seeking a Managing Contractor to manage all aspects of the Australian Scholarships for Africa program. The Managing Contractor will be expected to:

- establish a Base Office in Pretoria, a sub-regional Hub Office in Nairobi, and a Hub Office in Australia.

- demonstrate an understanding of African development challenges, as well as a strategic understanding of the Australian Scholarships for Africa Program (including the role of the Managing Contractor in achieving its objectives).

- demonstrate the capacity to manage a large and diverse team, from a variety of cultural backgrounds, in multiple locations.

The Managing Contractor's role will focus on procurement, financial management, planning, administration, logistics, communications, cross-cultural relations, partner government relations and coordination across many countries.

An Industry Briefing will be held in Canberra, Australia, on Thursday, 25 February 2010, and in Pretoria, South Africa, on Tuesday, 2 March 2010. Further information is provided in the tender documents on the AusTender website.

It is anticipated that the program will commence in September 2010 and will continue over three years. There may be scope for an extension of an additional two years; approval for this will be considered in 2010.

Selection will be made through a two-step process. The closing date for submission of Capability Statements is 2:00pm (Canberra time) 30 March 2010.

Tender documents are available on the AusTender website:

SWAHILI TEACHING FELLOWSHIP

St. Lawrence University, Canton, New York, announces a two-year Swahili Teaching Fellowship beginning AUGUST 14 2010. This fellowship is designed for an individual with advanced training in Swahili as well as teaching experience, preferably at the University level. Experience teaching Swahili as a second language and of teaching American Students in Kenya is desirable. The fellow will teach two sections of Swahili per semester, and may offer an advanced tutorial on occasion. The position can accommodate two types of candidates as follows:

- (1) Individuals who are registered for a Ph.D. degree in Kenya and who desire the opportunity to have two years to do research and writing while in Canton may find this position of interest. St. Lawrence University is primarily an undergraduate college but it has an excellent library. Funds are available for professional travel.
- (2) St. Lawrence offers a Master's Program in Counseling, Educational Administration or Education. Candidates for the teaching position may apply to the graduate program and have their tuition covered for two years.

This fellowship provides an Annual round trip ticket from Nairobi to New York, a furnished apartment, tuition for the graduate program (if applicable), an annual stipend of USD $10,000, an office and a computer, and an allowance for academic travel and conference/workshop participation within the U.S. Support to attend a workshop at the University of Wisconsin on teaching African Languages is also available.

APPLICATIONS:

Interested men and women with a Master's degree in Swahili studies, who have been teaching Kiswahili at the university level, may apply for the Swahili Teaching Fellowship by submitting the following:

- An application letter stating suitability for this fellowship
- A CV, including teaching experience and institutional affiliation
- Three letters of reference sent directly by the referees
- Copies of relevant academic documents; degree certificates and transcripts

The application materials should be sent to:
Swahili Teaching Fellowship
St Lawrence University KSP
P. O. Box 1128 – 00502 Karen, Nairobi
Fax: +254 20 882794
Email: sluksp@stlawu.edu

The application letter and CV may be sent electronically, as may the letters of reference. Degree certificates and transcripts may be faxed to the above number, or posted to the above address (copies only, please).

Completed applications must be received by Friday March 12, 2010 to receive full consideration. Only those short-listed for interview will be contacted, and final selection will be made by Friday April 16th 2010.
